A call for entries:

Photographers!

Is being in a museum show on your bucket list? Here's the opportunity to fulfill that dream and discover an amazing and historic space...The Sonoma County Museum in Santa Rosa, California.

Bring your camera phones, tablets, point-and-shoots, SLR's, or Hasselblads to become part of the exhibit IMBY| In My Back Yard (The Sonoma County Museum as Subject). We are inviting enthusiasts, both professional and amateur, to come to the SCM for a unique opportunity to have access to the galleries as well as parts of the museum not generally open to the public: i.e. the attic, the basement, etc. Let the museum be your muse! The next sessions will take place on Monday October 29 and Monday November 5. There will be three 2-hour time slots: 10:00 to 11:45, 12:00 to 1:45, and 2:00 to 3:45. Each time slot is limited to 15 photographers. Preregistration is essential and there will be no exceptions. In order to register, email Dominic Egan <mailto:Domini c Egan <dominicegan7@gmail.com>> , and please cc Pat Lenz <mailto:pat lenz <pat@patlenz.com>> and be sure to include your telephone/ cell phone number(s). A confirmation from Dominic is necessary for a time slot.

You may bring a tripod and one model and small props but no large equipment out of concern for the artwork in the current exhibition.

Guidelines for the finished work:

10" X 10" Format

Printed and mounted by Jeremiah's in Santa Rosa

Paid for and ready for pick-up no later than one week after photo session.

Being a member of the museum is not a prerequisite but we are offering a special IMBY discount to participating photographers the day of your photo shoot.

This is going to be an amazing show and we want you to be part of it.

All the best,

Pat Lenz & Dominic Egan
